I. Data and Access

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest Web page at <http://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/> that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district, the county, and the state. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g. Academic Performance Index [API], Adequate Yearly Progress [AYP], test data, enrollment, graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

II. About This School

School Description and Mission Statement (School Year 2010-11)

This section provides information about the school, its programs and its goals.

San Andreas Continuation High School is a school within the San Benito High School District. It is operated through the San Benito County Office of Education, with collaboration and consultation with San Benito High School. San Andreas Continuation High School staff believes all students can learn, given high expectations. Education is a shared responsibility which includes parents, students, staff, and the community. The mission of San Andreas Continuation High School is to provide students of the county with a quality alternative education when the traditional schools are unable to meet their individual educational needs. The goal is to educate all students to their highest potential so they will have the greatest range of personal options upon graduation. These goals are based upon the Expected School-wide Learning Results (ESLRs):

- B. Demonstrating understanding of various forms of written communication.
- C. Creatively organizing and expressing ideas in various written style and forms.
- D. Effectively communicating ideas, issues, and beliefs orally.
- E. Interpreting and presenting ideas in artistic and other visual forms.
- F. Demonstrating understanding of mathematical reasoning, measurement, statistics, data analysis, and problem-solving.
- G. Applying and integrating technological competencies and literacy to career goals.

2. Critical Thinking Skills

Every student will be an original and critical thinker, demonstrating his or her ability to apply, analyze, synthesize, and evaluate information by:

- A. Passing various basic skills tests and improving their standardized test scores.
- B. Completing a cross-curricular, multi-step project.
- C. Applying scientific concepts to comprehend natural phenomenon.
- D. Applying a sequential, multi-step writing process to various forms of written communication.

3. Social Responsibility

Every student will be a responsible citizen in the community, while increasing their self-esteem, respect, empowerment, and conflict resolution skills by:

- A. Learning self-regulating behaviors and tools.

- C. Working collaboratively on projects and vocational experiences.
- D. Displaying respect, tolerance, non-violence, self-confidence and good manners towards others in multiple settings.
- E. Demonstrating positive/productive citizenship, and the rights and responsibilities of American Citizens.
- F. Practicing environmental awareness.

San Andreas Continuation High School is an alternative school serving students in grades nine through twelve. There is one self-contained special day class for students with individual Education Plans which include high school age students. San Andreas remains the only alternative school for high school grade students in the county. Students are referred from San Benito High School, Anzar High School and Santa Ana Opportunity School. Students also enter from the Pinnacles Court and Community/Juvenile Hall Schools. A screening panel is conducted to determine eligibility and appropriate program placement for incoming students. Students and parents participate in an orientation regarding the expectations and procedures of the school.

Students come for a variety of reasons, including many of the following: truancy; falling behind academically, social difficulties at school; personal and familial challenges; and behavioral challenges within the traditional school setting. The school philosophy is guided by the students, the families and the school community. The school's foundation is based upon mutual respect, responsibility and safety. The school community relationship is guided by dignity, kindness, compassion, and most importantly, two-way communication.

Teachers at San Andreas Continuation High School consistently align their curriculum maps, lessons and formative assessments to the CA standards and the ESLR's to achieve positive classroom results. In addition the requirements of No Child Left Behind are monitored. The San Andreas teaching staff provides core academic courses in English Language Arts (ELA), Algebra Readiness, Algebra, Geometry, History/Social Science and Science. CAHSEE Prep classes are offered in ELA and Math. On-line courses are offered for Credit Recovery and Independent Studies. In addition migrant education and special education services are available, as well as a short-term independent study program. A computer lab and small library are also on site and utilized by both staff and students.

Opportunities for Parental Involvement (School Year 2010-11)

This section provides information about opportunities for parents to become involved with school activities, including contact information pertaining to organized opportunities for parental involvement.

Opportunities for involving parents as partners begin with the enrollment/orientation process. The school provides information to the parents and school community regarding student achievement of the academic standards and ESLRs. Parents learn they are welcome on campus and can consider the school as a source of support for themselves as well. Both the principal and the assistant principal maintain an open-door policy and make themselves available when parents need to talk, or need assistance in making connections with other service agencies.

Teachers involve parents by providing ongoing communication about the progress of their student(s). For example, teachers call to share student successes and to seek parent support in changing inappropriate student behavior. In addition to making phone calls, teachers also send home "good news" reports, grade progress reports, and other forms of written communication.

San Andreas Continuation School has an active School Site Council, which meets monthly. The SSC determines goals and budgets for the school. A Community Knight is held once a year in the Spring, to promote career awareness for students and parents.

The school leadership encourages parental and community involvement initially through the student enrollment orientation process. Newsletters and bulletins are developed and mailed home in both English and Spanish. Community resources that support student's physical, emotional and social well-being are made available to both students and parents.

III. School Climate

School Safety Plan (School Year 2010-11)

This section provides information about the school's comprehensive safety plan.

San Andreas shares its site with Santa Ana Opportunity School. The site is always clean and neat due the efforts of the full-time custodian. The bathrooms, kitchen, classrooms and office spaces are safe, clean environments. San Andreas reviews and updates the school safety plan on an annual basis. Each year, an in-house inspection and reporting process is conducted, to comply with the Williams' Settlement. Every other year, Northern California Relief provides a full facility inspection, as well as Workman's Compensation Inspection.

A full time counselor is available to students as well as School Resource Officer. Teachers and staff are involved with students both in and out of school. Students and staff exchange cell phone numbers so students can be picked up or escorted home, if necessary. The School Resource Officers will make house calls with the counselor or administrator when possible. Students who have difficulty getting to Mental Health appointments often get transportation from a school employee.

Students are encouraged to follow the social responsibility as outlined in the ESLRs, through working collaboratively on projects and vocational experiences (ESLR 3c). The counseling staff assists students in the areas of conflict resolution, Individual Education Plans, and other areas of student need.

IX. Student Performance

Standardized Testing and Reporting Program

The Standardized Testing and Reporting (STAR) Program consists of several key components, including the California Standards Tests (CSTs); the California Modified Assessment (CMA), and the California Alternate Performance Assessment (CAPA). The assessments under the STAR program show how well students are doing in relation to the state content standards. The CSTs include English-language arts (ELA) and mathematics in grades two through eleven; science in grades five, eight, and nine through eleven; and history-social science in grades eight, and nine through eleven. The CAPA includes ELA and mathematics in grades two through eleven, and science for grades five, eight, and ten. The CAPA is given to those students with significant cognitive disabilities whose disabilities prevent them from taking either the CSTs with accommodations or modifications or the CMA with accommodations. The CMA is an alternate assessment that is based on modified achievement standards in ELA for grades three through nine, mathematics for grades three through seven and Algebra I and science in grades five, eight, and ten. The CMA is designed to assess those students whose disabilities preclude them from achieving grade-level proficiency on an assessment of the California content standards with or without accommodations. On each of these assessments, student scores are reported as performance levels. Detailed information regarding the STAR Program results for each grade and performance level, including the percent of students not tested, can be found on the CDE Standardized Testing and Reporting (STAR) Results Web site at <http://star.cde.ca.gov>. Program information regarding the STAR Program can be found in the Explaining 2009 STAR Program Summary Results to the Public guide at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/sr/documents/pkt5intrpts09.pdf>. Note: Scores are not shown when the number of students tested is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy. In no case shall any group score be reported that would deliberately or inadvertently make public the score or performance of any individual student.

California High School Exit Examination

The California High School Exit Examination (CAHSEE) is primarily used as a graduation requirement. However, the grade ten results of this exam are also used to establish the percentages of students at three proficiency levels (not proficient, proficient, or advanced) in ELA and mathematics in order to compute Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) designations as required by the federal NCLB Act of 2001. Detailed information regarding CAHSEE results can be found at the CDE California High School Exit Examination (CAHSEE) Web site at <http://cahsee.cde.ca.gov/>. Note: Scores are not shown when the number of students tested is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy, or to protect student privacy. In no case shall any group score be reported that would deliberately or inadvertently make public the score or performance of any individual student.

X. Accountability

Academic Performance Index

The Academic Performance Index (API) is an annual measure of the academic performance and progress of schools in California. API scores range from 200 to 1,000, with a statewide target of 800. Detailed information about the API can be found at the CDE Academic Performance Index (API) Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/ap/>.

Academic Performance Index Ranks - Three-Year Comparison

This table displays the school's statewide and similar schools API ranks. The statewide API rank ranges from 1 to 10. A statewide rank of 1 means that the school has an API score in the lowest ten percent of all schools in the state, while a statewide rank of 10 means that the school has an API score in the highest ten percent of all schools in the state. The similar schools API rank reflects how a school compares to 100 statistically matched "similar schools." A similar schools rank of 1 means that the school's academic performance is comparable to the lowest performing ten schools of the 100 similar schools, while a similar schools rank of 10 means that the school's academic performance is better than at least 90 of the 100 similar schools.

- API as an additional indicator
- Graduation rate (for secondary schools)

Detailed information about AYP, including participation rates and percent proficient results by student group, can be found at the CDE Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/ay/>.

After entering PI, schools and districts advance to the next level of intervention with each additional year that they do not make AYP. Detailed information about PI identification can be found at the CDE Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/ay/>.

XI. School Completion and Postsecondary Preparation

Admission Requirements for California Public Universities

University of California

Admission requirements for the University of California (UC) follow guidelines set forth in the Master Plan, which requires that the top one-eighth of the state's high school graduates, as well as those transfer students who have successfully completed specified college work, be eligible for admission to the UC. These requirements are designed to ensure that all eligible students are adequately prepared for University-level work. For general admissions requirements please visit the General Admissions Information Web page at <http://www.universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions/general.html>.

California State University

San Andreas Continuation High 2010-11 School Accountability Report Card

Admission requirements for the California State University (CSU) use three factors to determine eligibility. They are specific high school courses; grades in specified courses and test scores; and graduation from high school. Some campuses have higher standards for particular majors or students who live outside the local campus area. Because of the number of students who apply, a few campuses have higher standards (supplementary admission criteria) for all applicants. Most CSU campuses utilize local admission guarantee policies for students who graduate or transfer from high schools and colleges that are historically served by a CSU campus in that region. For general admissions requirements please visit the California State University Web page at <http://www.calstate.edu/SAS/admreq.shtml>.

XII. Instructional Planning and Scheduling

Professional Development

This section provides information on the annual number of school days dedicated to staff development for the most recent three-year period.

WASC A5:

The Administrators of San Andreas Continuation High School, SSC, ELAC and staff determine the professional development plan based upon a variety of information, including student achievement data, curricular needs, the ESLRs, teacher input via a San Benito Countywide Professional Development Survey, as well as input from monthly staff meetings, quarterly professional development meetings and individual evaluations.

The staff was instrumental in creating a climate for collaboration time. Therefore, in the Fall of 2007, a monthly collaboration time was added to the school calendar. The third Thursday is a minimum day set aside devoted to Professional Learning Communities. San Andreas Teachers meet once a week to discuss their students' progress.

A variety of professional development workshops for teachers and staff, sponsored by San Benito County Office of Education, are offered on the First Thursday of each month.

Read 180 was adopted in 2010 as a Reading Intervention program. This program has been adopted Countywide, so there is continuity between school programs.

Professional development goals for this year include, Differentiated Instruction for English Learners, Data Analysis, Benchmark Assessments, Curriculum Mapping, READ 180 for specific teachers, and use of Promethean Boards. Identified certificated and classified staff have been trained in the Aventa online learning program for independent study and credit recovery.
